

Innovation Safety Award Nomination - Operator

The nomination information will be completed within this form. Other documents including photos may be attached when emailing the nomination to support@ausjetinc.com.au.

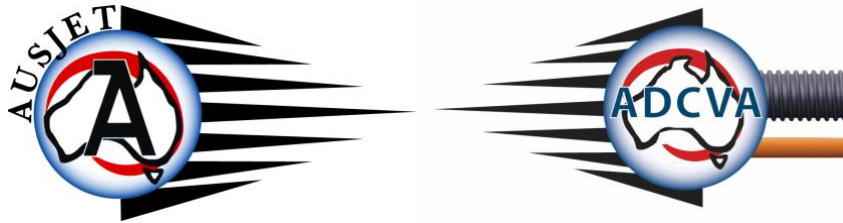

In filling out a nomination the nominating company agrees to their completed nomination being published on the AUSJET web site.

Name of Operator being Nominated:

Member Company of Operator being Nominated:

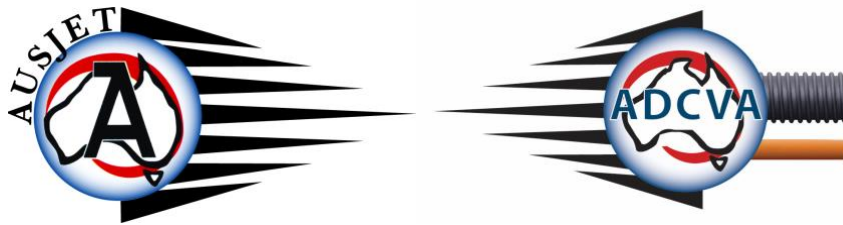

1. Commitment to Safety

- a. Explain how the nominee has displayed a strong and ongoing commitment to safety.
- b. Did the nominee identify a need for significant changes to systems of work and/or work ethics.

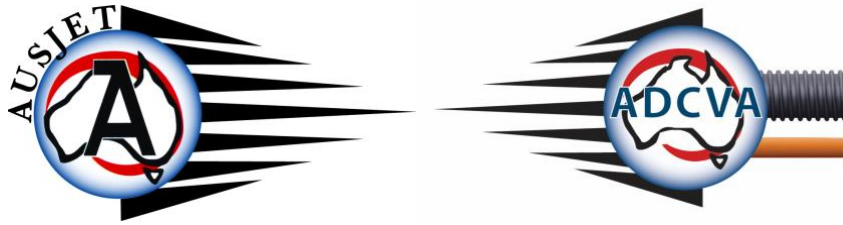

2. Line of Fire Reduction

- a. Explain how the nominee identified a need for an innovation that removed the person from the line of fire on either a project, work practice, acquisition of new or updated equipment and or change in technology.
- b. What was the process, the timeline and how did the nominee consult with all of the stakeholders to achieve the result?
- c. How did the innovation make the task safer?

3. Commitment to their Teams

- a. Explain how the nominee displayed ongoing commitment to their work team and how their commitment could save personnel from being injured?
- b. Explain how the nominee assisted in the evaluation of the innovation, changes to systems of work and training.

All other information to support this nomination, such as client/customer feedback, photos, etc. may be submitted with this completed nomination form to support@ausjetinc.com.au.

Declaration:

I declare that I have gained permission to disclose information as part of the entry in the AUSJET Innovation Safety Awards.

The member company Operator understands that by submission of this form they will be added to the AUSJET / ADCVA database, and their name, image and submission may be used publicly by AUSJET in promotional material and on the AUSJET Website.

NOMINATOR'S NAME:

NOMINATOR'S SIGNATURE:

NOMINATION DATE: