

Innovation Safety Award - Supplier Company

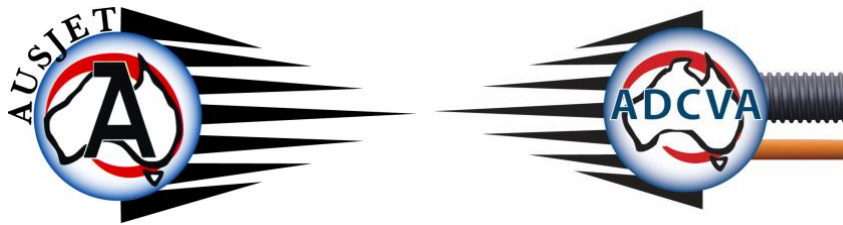

The nomination information will be completed within this form. Other documents including photos may be attached when emailing the nomination to support@ausjetinc.com.au.

In filling out a nomination the nominating company agrees to their completed nomination being published on the AUSJET web site.

Name of Member Company Being Nominated:

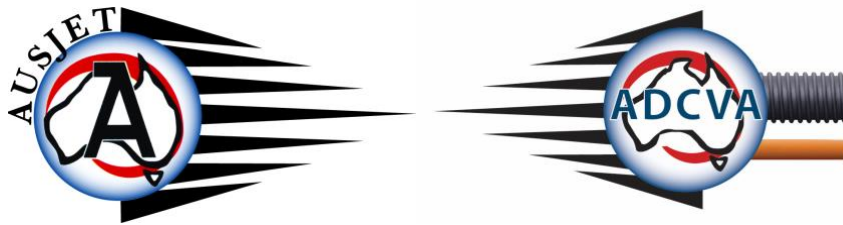

1. Commitment to Safety

Explain how your company management, staff, systems of work and ethics display a strong and ongoing commitment to safety in the supply of equipment to the industrial services industry.

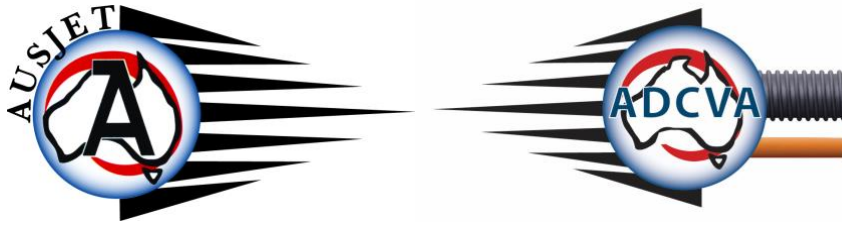

2. Commitment to Innovation

- a. Explain how your company identified a need for innovation for either a project, work practice, acquisition of new or updated equipment and or technology.
- b. What was the process, the timeline and how did the company consult with all of the stakeholders to achieve the result?
- c. How did the innovation make the task safer?

3. Commitment to the Industry

- a. Explain how your company can display its ongoing commitment to the Industrial Services industry.
- b. Can your innovation become a standard practice that saves personnel from being injured?

All other information to support this nomination, such as client/customer feedback, photos, etc. may be submitted with this completed nomination form to support@ausjetinc.com.au.

Declaration:

I declare that I have gained permission to disclose information as part of the entry in the AUSJET Innovation & Safety Awards.

The member company understands that by submission of this form they will be added to AUSJET / ADCVA database, and their name, image and submission may be used publicly by AUSJET in promotional material and on the AUSJET Website.

NOMINATOR'S NAME:

NOMINATOR'S SIGNATURE:

NOMINATION DATE: